DAILY LOG

Office of the Deputy Director

Date 2 November 1962

1. Hilsman Reports

a. "Missile Crisis Impact in Latin America"

The Caribbean crisis has had a tonic effect on Latin American politics by indicating that victory of the Castro movement is not inevitable and by helping to encourage action on Alliance for Progress reforms. (ER 62-8044)

b. "Western European Reactions to the Soviet Decision to Dismantle the Missile Bases in Cuba"

Resume of reactions already heralded in the press. (ER 62-8041)

25X6

d. "Peiping and The Cuban Crisis: October 22-31"

Obviously miffed by Moscow's reluctance to confront the US on Cuba, Peiping is attempting to identify itself more closely with Castro and Cuba. (ER 62-8043)

e. "Soviet Bloc Airlift Potential to Cuba"

Monthly statistical study. (ER 62-8028)

f. "The Chinese Communist Attack on India"

A general study of Indian and Chinese border clashes in September and October.

g. "Statements on the Cuban Crisis by Lower-Ranking Bloc Officials"

Most Bloc officials appear to have been uninstructed during the crisis and remained notably calm. (ER 62-8026)

h. "Moscow's Current Goal: Minimize Inspection-- Maximize Assurances for Castro"

Summarizes late developments and attempts to assess significance. (ER 62-8025)

i. "Moscow Summons Czechs on Castro Aid"

Moscow meeting in late October for exchange of opinions on Czech aid to Cuba. (ER 62-8024)

4. USIB-D-53. 2/1, "Analysis of Foreign Intelligence Plans and Programs for FY-1964"

A thick document which you doubtless will want to scan prior to its appearance on a USIB agenda. However, for the moment, we will hold it until the crisis passes.
